2. Approval of Minutes of Previous Meeting
   The minutes of the October 2018 International Council Meeting were reviewed. Motion to approve the minutes – Barbara Dunn, Second – Ron Schleede, Motion passed unanimously.

3. Presidents View – Frank Del Gandio
   Frank Del Gandio briefed the Council that they are in need of Lederer applications. Frank Del Gandio briefed the Council on the Lederer selection process.

   Frank Del Gandio discussed the life membership - 5 years with ISASI and 70 years old. There are 237 members over 70 and 98 members will be over 70 in the next 5 years. Frank proposed to change Life Membership from 70 to 75, and to be a member for at least 10 years. Also he proposed that members will only receive the electronic version of the Forum. This will start on January 1, 2024. Gary DiNunno is concerned that some may want the hard copy. Caj Frostell expressed concern that some might not know that they have to apply for Life membership. In Canada, Barbara Dunn does advise her members about Life membership when they turn 70. Robert Carter suggested a lump sum payment for Life membership. Bob MacIntosh expressed concern with the potential to lose members.

   There were discussions about having a lump sum payment for Life membership.

   Ron Schleede suggested a small committee do a study on Life membership – Robert Carter, Barbara Dunn and Michiel Schuurman.

   ACTION ITEM: Robert Carter, Barbara Dunn and Michiel Schuurman will accomplish a study on Life membership.

   Barbara Dunn reminded the council of the need to submit items in advance of the meeting.
Frank Del Gandio submitted an application for Jerry Lederer for a US Postal Stamp. It could take up to 3 years to make a decision.

Frank Del Gandio briefed that Calvin Rans was recognized as the Teacher of the Year Award for Delft University and Teacher of the Year for The Netherlands.

Frank Del Gandio has ordered 50th ISASI Seminar Challenge Coins for The Hague.

Frank Del Gandio would like to send Seminar boxes to the next seminar in a cost savings measure.

The Harry Robertson Fellow program is going well with a new selectee, Tori Kobayashi, at Embry-Riddle – Prescott campus.

Frank Del Gandio expressed concern with the selection committee process that occurred in Dubai. Frank Del Gandio was made aware of a second selection committee process. Frank Del Gandio stated that this will not occur in the future.

Frank Del Gandio thanked Frank Hildrup for the organization of the MARC dinner.

Bob MacIntosh briefed his financial report. ISASI is a non-profit organization. Bob MacIntosh discussed that in accordance with the United States Internal Revenue Service (IRS) rules, ISASI has to file a Form 990 to maintain its non-profit status. Part of the IRS process is to identify programs and services, which includes the seminar, the Forum, and the ISASI website.

Bob MacIntosh briefed the 2018 Budget. In addition to ISASI’s funds, we also keep funds for the Southeast Asia society and for the inactive Northern California Regional Chapter.

Bob MacIntosh briefed the importance of membership; both individual, and corporate.

Bob MacIntosh also briefed the expenses of the organization.

The Dubai Seminar profit was $120,662.01

Barbara Dunn and Robert Carter asked about ‘Operations’ expenses. Bob MacIntosh briefed that it includes Women in Aviation, employee travel, and day to day operations of the organization.

Motion to accept report – Robert Carter, Second – Caj Frostell, Motion passed unanimously.

5. Membership Report – Ron Schleede
Ron Schleede briefed the submitted membership report. 2018 – 213 new members, 13 new corporate members. There are 385 individual and 30 corporate memberships that are delinquent. Councilors should have received a list of delinquent members. ESASI would like an earlier notice, but they do have an individual following up on the delinquent memberships. Robert Carter also suggested a second membership email. Ron Schleede stated that Erin Carroll does a good job of following up with corporate members.
Ron Schleede expressed gratitude to Ann Schull and the Bledsoe’s for their participation at the Women in Aviation conference, which included 28 new members at Women in Aviation.

Ron Schleede briefed the approval process for membership, including Michiel Schuurman helping Ron Schleede out with membership.

Alister Buckingham stated that they require a CV for new members to aid in the membership committee decision.

Paul Mayes discussed that he doesn’t feel close enough with the local corporate members. Paul Mayes asked about the corporate point of contact in Australia being part of their distribution list.

ACTION ITEM: Alicia Storey will look at options to identify corporate members by society for distribution lists.

Bob MacIntosh discussed the importance of gaining new corporate members and trying to find opportunities to reach out to potential new corporate members.

Motion to approve report Alister Buckingham, Second – Bob MacIntosh, Motion passed unanimously.

Gary DiNunno briefed the next feature in the design stage and that they have been working on the digital Forum version. 128 members want only a digital-only subscription, which will save the association a few hundred dollars per issue with the biggest savings being in international shipping.

Alicia Storey provided a briefing on the digital Forum, which includes a new distribution list for digital copies recipients. The briefing included an overview of the digital version. Robert Carter asked about making a PDF copy of an article, Alicia Storey said that it can be printed as a PDF by page(s), not by article. There was discussion about access to the Forum, the decision was made to allow open access. Frank Del Gandio thanked Alicia Storey and her team on getting this set up.

There were discussions about ISASI’s positions and their location on the website. Frank Hildrup asked about the development of positions. Frank Del Gandio asked Frank Hildrup, Ron Schleede, Bob MacIntosh, and Caj Frostell to review the positions.
